Mr Williams: This is difficult! Can I keep the book? I can tell you tomorrow.
Lucy: Keep the book?
Ben: No, sorry. We can't give it to you.

Mr Williams: OK then, sorry kids. I can't help you. I've got to go.
Lucy: OK, thanks anyway.

Ben: What's going on? It's dark!
Lucy: Come on, Ben. We have to get out of here.

2 Read the story quickly. Try to find the answers.

1 What is the teacher's name?
2 What doesn't Oliver like?
3 What do the children write down on the paper?

3 018 Read and listen. Check your answers.

Puzzles are great fun

All the girls and boys in Oliver's class like playing football but Oliver doesn't like football. Many of them love playing computer games but Oliver really doesn't like computer games. 'He's a bit silly!' a boy called Mike says.

At lunch Ms Sanders, their teacher, goes outside with her class. The children love that. Most of the children run around but Oliver prefers sitting under a tree. 'He likes thinking,' some children say. 'He's a bit silly!' Mike says.

One day, the children have a History lesson. Many of the children love History. They love listening to Ms Sanders' stories. Oliver finds listening to stories boring, he prefers numbers and dates.

Ms Sanders sees that Oliver is not listening and she stops her story. She goes to the board and writes a date on it: 10th August 1992.

'History is full of important dates.' Ms Sanders says. Oliver starts to listen. 'And dates are important in our lives too.' Ms Sanders says. 'Look at this date. It's very important to me but maybe it's not important to you. What do you think it is, Oliver?'

The children are all very quiet now. They are looking at Ms Sanders, and they are looking at Oliver. 'It's a Monday!' Oliver says.
'Ha ha!' laugh the children in the class.
Ms Sanders tells them to be quiet. 'You're right, Oliver! It is a Monday and it's my birthday. How do you know it's a Monday?'

lingo-therapy.com

'It's easy!' Oliver says. 'Write down a date. And I can tell you what day of the week it is!'
'That's not true!' Mike says. 'You can't know that! You're not a computer. Hahahaha!'

'Take out some paper,' Ms Sanders tells the class. 'Write down a day, a month and a year.'

10th April 2016 – 'It's a Sunday!' Oliver says.
21st September 1999 – 'It's a Tuesday!' Oliver says.
1st January 2001 – 'It's a Monday!' Oliver says.
'Now let's look at the computer!' says Ms Sanders. 'Mike, come here!'
Mike sits down at the computer. He types the first date: 10th April 2016.
'It is a Sunday!' Mike says. He looks at the next date.
'It is a Tuesday!' Mike says. And when he looks at the next date he says, 'It is a Monday!'

'Wow!' the children say. 'You're a computer, Oliver!'
Oliver smiles. 'I'm not a computer!'
'Can you teach us how to do this?' Mike says.
'Mm. I've got an idea,' Oliver says. 'Let's start a puzzle club at our school. Puzzles are great fun!'
'Hooray!' the children shout.

4 Put the story in order.

- ☐ In a History lesson, Ms Sanders is telling a story.
- ☐ Oliver doesn't listen to the story.

The shoemaker and the elves

In a country far away there is a shoemaker. His job is not easy. He always gets up at 6 o'clock and he never goes to bed before 11 o'clock. The shoemaker always cuts the leather and then he makes the shoes. He works a lot, but he hasn't got a lot of money. One day he cuts the leather for ten pairs of shoes. But he is very tired, so he leaves the leather on the kitchen table and goes to bed.

The next morning, the shoemaker gets up and sees ten pairs of beautiful shoes on the kitchen table. He is very happy. That night, before he goes to bed, the shoemaker cuts the leather for twenty pairs of shoes and leaves it on the kitchen table. The next morning there are twenty pairs of beautiful shoes on the table. Every night, he leaves the leather for more pairs of shoes, and every morning there are beautiful shoes on the table!

Many people in the town want a pair of the shoes and soon the shoemaker has got a lot of money. But who is making the shoes? The shoemaker wants to know. One night he hides under a table and waits. At 12 o'clock the shoemaker sees five elves. They jump onto the table and start making the shoes. The shoemaker sees their clothes too. They are very old and not very nice. At 5 o'clock in the morning the elves stop and leave the house.

The shoemaker wants to say 'thank you' to the elves, so he makes five beautiful small pairs of trousers and shirts. That night, he leaves the clothes on the table with the leather. In the morning the clothes are gone, but the leather is still there.

First, the shoemaker is sad. 'The elves are not making shoes for me anymore!' he thinks. But then he thinks, 'It's great. The elves have beautiful, new clothes and I have a good life now.'

Saved by dolphins

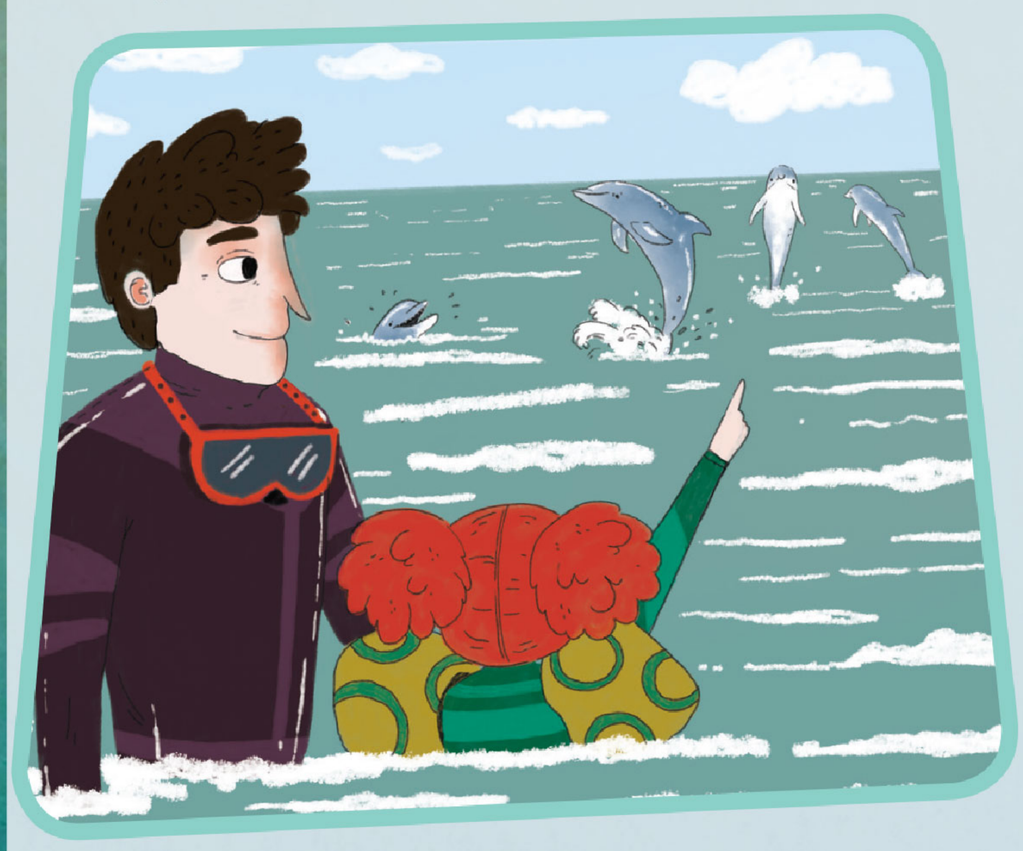

Kylie Morgan is on holiday with her mum and dad on the North Island of New Zealand.

One morning, her dad asks, 'Who wants to go for a swim in the sea?'

'I do!' says Kylie.

'I want to sit on the beach and read my book,' says her mum.

Kylie and her dad are swimming in the sea.

'Look!' shouts Kylie. 'There's a dolphin.'

Soon, there are four big dolphins in the water next to them. They are swimming in circles around Kylie and her dad.

'I think they want to play with us,' says Kylie.

The circle of dolphins gets smaller and smaller. They are now very close to Kylie and her dad. Then, the dolphins start to hit their tails on the top of the water. Up and down, up and down.

'This is fun,' laughs Kylie. But her dad is worried. 'Why are the dolphins doing this?' he thinks. But he doesn't say anything to Kylie.

Then he sees something. Behind the dolphins, there is a big, grey fin swimming through the water. Kylie's dad knows what it is. It's the fin of a great white shark.

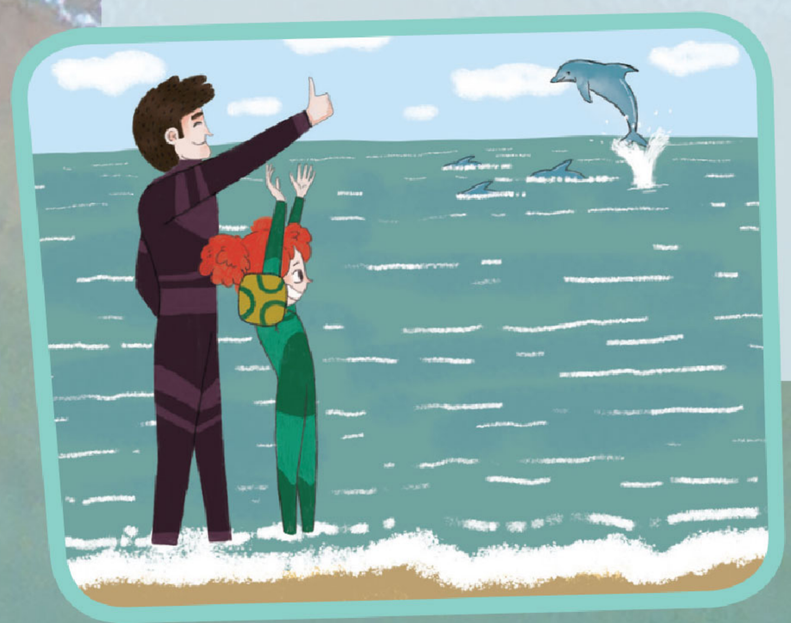

lingo-therapy.com

Great white sharks can be very big and they have hundreds of teeth in their huge mouths. They can swim very fast, and they eat other sea animals like fish, seals, turtles and birds.

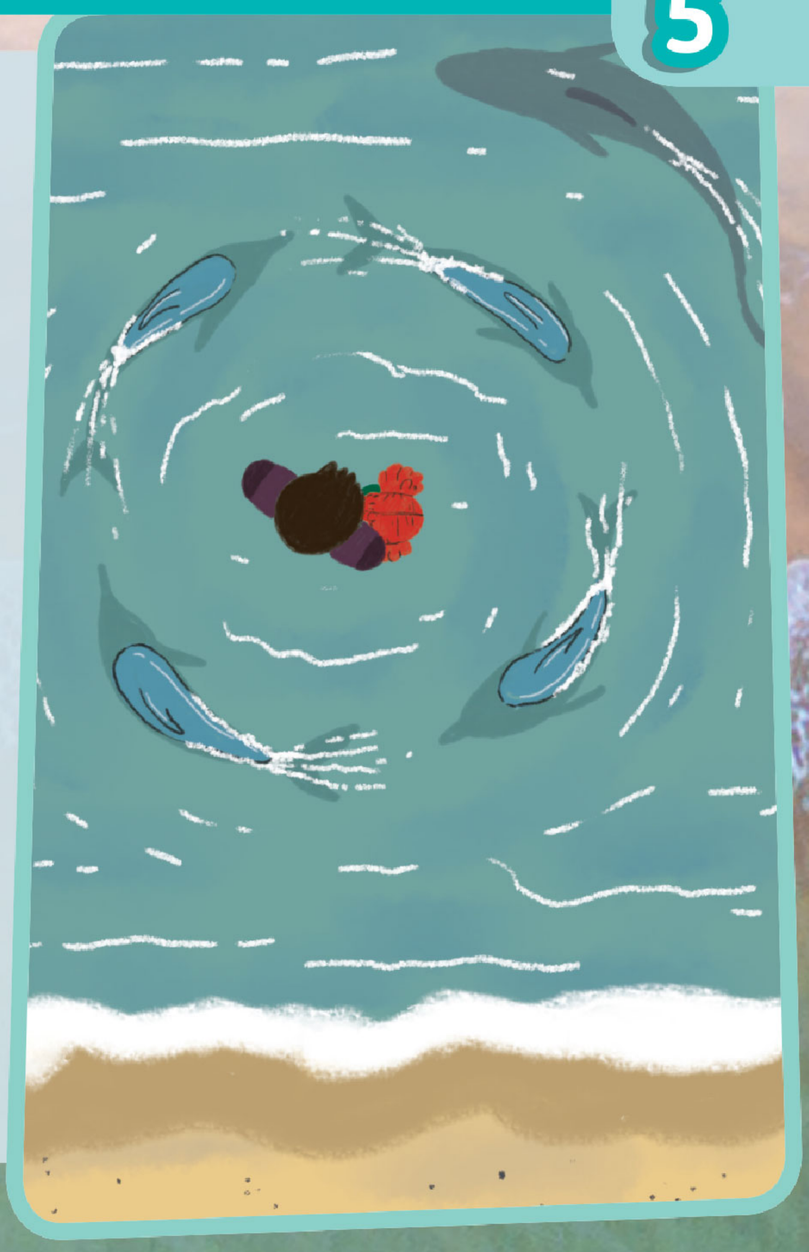

Kylie's dad knows all this. That is why he is scared. He pulls Kylie close to him but he still doesn't say anything.

For ten minutes, Kylie's dad watches the fin swimming around them. Then it swims away. The dolphins stop swimming in circles and Kylie and her dad can swim back to the beach.

On the beach, Kylie's dad tells Kylie and her mum about the shark.

'Those dolphins really helped us!' he says.

Pollution Climate change

OUR SICK SEAS

Our seas are very important. Millions of sea creatures live in them. Sea plants make 50% of our oxygen and take 25% of our carbon dioxide. But our seas are in danger.

A _____

The world is getting hotter and the ice at the north and south poles is melting (becoming water). Because there is more water in the sea, there are more floods and many cities by the sea are in danger.

The sea is also getting hotter. This is bad for coral reefs because the hotter water is killing the coral. The coral is losing its beautiful colours and turning white. Sea creatures can't live in it any more and lots of starfish, seahorses and other fish are losing their homes.

B _____

Plastic pollution is a big problem for our oceans. There is lots of plastic rubbish, like bags and cups, in the water. Sea creatures sometimes eat the plastic. Lots of fish now have plastic inside them.

There are lots of big boats and ships on our oceans. They take things like clothes, televisions, food and people around the world. There is pollution from their oil in the water. Fish and coral reefs are dying from this pollution. Ships can also hit coral reefs.

Writing tip

Making notes helps you to write.

1 Find information about a sea creature and make notes.

Animal: turtle

- What do they look like? brown, green, yellow, grey, four legs, hard shell
- Where do they live? in water (salt water and fresh water)
- How do they have their young? lay eggs in the sand on the beach, then go away, babies open egg, start to swim
- How long do they live? 40–70 years, but the oldest turtle is about 175 years old!
- Other interesting facts: turtles have got very good eyes, and they haven't got ears.

2 Find pictures and write about your sea creature.

TURTLES

I like turtles. They are beautiful. They are green, yellow, grey and brown. They live in the sea, rivers or lakes. They eat plants and small animals. Turtles lay eggs on beaches. They put their eggs into the sand. The baby turtles swim. Turtles usually live for 40–70 years, but they can live up to 175 years.

What materials did cave artists use in the past?

1 083 Listen and point.

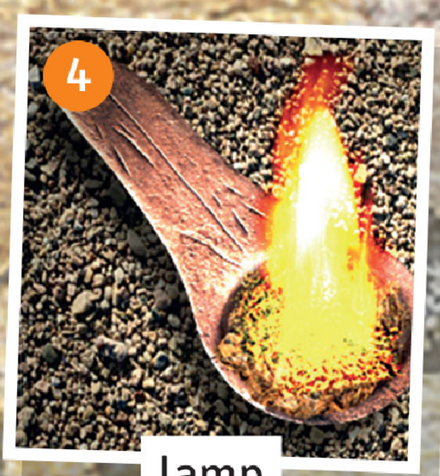

charcoal

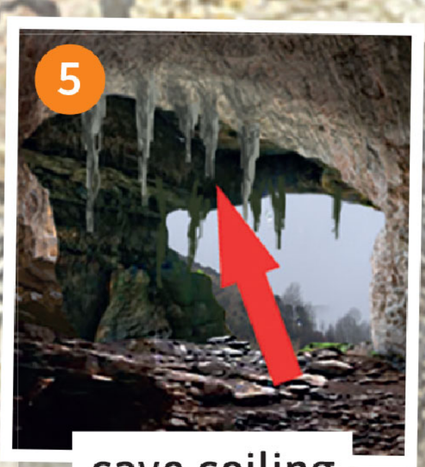

rock powder

lamp

cave ceiling

2 Read and answer the questions.

Long ago, cave artists liked painting pictures on the walls and ceilings of their caves. They used small lamps to see their paintings because it was very dark inside the caves. We can see very old paintings of animals and birds in some caves today and sometimes the paintings tell a story.

The colours in cave paintings are usually black, red, yellow, orange and brown. The colour black comes from charcoal. Artists used this to draw the lines of the animals. The colours red, yellow, orange and brown come from rock powder. Artists mixed the powder with water to make paint and they used their fingers and small twigs from trees to put the paint on the cave walls.

A new best friend

Emma Woodward was 11 years old. She liked swimming and riding her bike. But one day Emma woke up with a headache. It got worse and worse and Emma felt very ill. Her parents took her to a hospital and she saw the doctor straight away. Emma couldn't walk or stand up. The doctor looked at her very carefully. 'There's a problem with Emma's head, she needs an operation straight away.'

After the operation Emma was asleep. When she woke up she had to stay in bed for a long time. She couldn't remember how to do anything. The doctor said 'Emma's legs are not strong. She needs to use a wheelchair. When she's not in the wheelchair, she needs crutches.' Emma was very tired and didn't try to walk. 'I can't do it!' she said. Her parents were worried. 'What can we do? How can we help Emma?' they asked.

One day Emma's mum heard about the Helper Dog Project. The project had dogs to help people with many different kinds of problems.

The next day, they went to see the Helper Dog Project. Emma was on her crutches. She went from the car to the building. She was very tired. She sat in a chair. Then one of the dogs came over. His name was Jasper, and he was the biggest dog in the room. He looked at Emma. Then he put his paw on Emma's leg. Emma knew Jasper was her new best friend.

lingo-therapy.com

The family took Jasper home and with his help Emma slowly learned to walk again. She put one hand on Jasper and used her other hand to hold a crutch. It was difficult but every day, Emma walked a little more. Soon she started to walk with no crutches using Jasper to help her.

These days Emma and Jasper are always together. Jasper even goes to school with Emma. When she is reading or writing, Jasper sleeps under her desk.

Last week there was a surprise for Jasper and Emma. A magazine gave Jasper a big prize – The Best Animal of the Year! The next day, the story about the little girl and the big dog was in all the newspapers.

'Look!' Emma said to Jasper. 'You are now the most famous dog in the world!'

Jasper looked at Emma. Then he put his paw on her leg. She remembered the first time she saw Jasper and smiled.

1 Read the story quickly. Write the answers.

1 Where did Liam and his family go on holiday?

2 What was the weather like?

3 Why was it a very different holiday?

2 120 Read and listen. Check your answers.

A very different holiday

Liam was very excited. 'We're going to Florida for two weeks. We're going to swim a lot and we're going to see lots of beautiful fish. It's going to be fantastic!' he said. His mum and dad were excited about the holiday too. 'We can go for boat rides!' said Dad. 'We can relax and have a lot of fun!' said Mum.

They arrived in Florida in the afternoon. The hotel was beautiful, and close to the sea. Their rooms had big windows. Liam loved looking at the sea and the boats. 'Tomorrow I'm going to swim in the sea!' he said.

That evening, they sat on the balcony for more than an hour. It was dark and there were lots of stars. They listened to the sea. 'This is going to be a great holiday,' said Liam.

In the middle of the night Liam woke up. 'What's that noise?' he thought. He looked outside and saw a big thunderstorm. Liam felt a little scared. 'We're OK here, Liam,' said Dad. 'But the weather isn't looking good. Let's switch on the TV.'

'There's going to be a lot of rain in Florida for the next fourteen days,' said the man on TV. 'There are going to be thunderstorms with strong winds and lots of lightning. It's going to be much colder than normal too.'

lingo-therapy.com

Liam looked at his dad. Then he looked at his mum. They were both quiet. 'That can't be true! It's our holiday. We can't swim or see fish in the rain! It's going to be boring,' Liam said.

'The most important thing is that we're on holiday,' answered Mum. 'We can have fun in our room. We can read, play games and listen to music. We don't need sun to have a good time!'

Two weeks later, their holiday was finished. 'I don't want to go home, Mum,' Liam said. 'We didn't go swimming or see any beautiful fish, and we didn't go on a boat ride. But it was a beautiful holiday!'

'I agree,' Mum said. 'Let's finish packing later. Let's play another game first!' Dad went to get their games box. 'Hooray!' shouted Liam.

3 Put the story in order.
